

Desert Sun

from the album Eye of the Storm

Jay Ducharme

moderately

De-sert sun___ climb-ing high___ If

I don't find me an o - a - sis soon I'm gon-na die De-sert sun___ sink-ing low

___ Days go by How long I've been here I just___ don't know I re-mem-ber ci-ties tall a- gainst the night Shin-ing with a pro-mise of a fu-ture that was bright Mapped a-mong my mem-o-ries, mir - a - ges now re-main

Still I keep on hop-ing they'll rise___ from the dust a - gain De sert sun___ climb ing high___ If I don't find me an o - a - sis soon I'm gon-na die De sert sun ___ sink-ing low___ I'm look-ing for fa - mi-liar sights I used___ to know

I'm fol-lowed by my foot-prints and a - ban-doned where I stand Search-ing for my child-hood in the burn-ing de - sert sand Re - a - li - ty has won the fight I fought all through my youth But stub-born-ness and sad-ness blind me from the truth De sert sun__ climbing high__ If

D E7

C G E7

I don't find me an o - a - sis soon I'm gon-na die De sert sun__ sink-ing low

C G E7

__ I'm look-ing for a fad-ing dream of fro - zen snow Some young men ran a-head of me to set-tle some-one's score The en - e - my has long been dead and still they search for more I

C G C G

C G F D E7

ne-ver un-der-stood what all those men were fight-ing for Can they re-build the ci-ties with the ash-es of a war

C G

De sert sun__ climb ing high__ If I don't find me an o - a - sis soon I'm

E7 C

gon-na die De sert sun__ sink-ing low__ I bet-ter find me peace

G E7

__ right here There's no - where left to go

C G E7

repeat and fade

(Instrumental)