

Still I Walk

from the album Waves

Jay Ducharme

Moderately

when dark-ness falls I search for the light hid-den by the si-lent ri-ver be-low chas-ing af-ter ghosts in the night breath-ing fast but mo-ving slow the air is warm but the ground is cold wet with foot-prints close be-hind there's dan-ger here or so I'm told may-be dan-ger's what I'm here to find a sil-hou-ette a-gainst the sky a bridge a-cross to the oth-er side nights on end

I've passed it by thought to cross but ne-ver tried

Em G F Am Em G F Am Em G F Am the time has come_ to change my course one small step and it's done

Em G F Am Em G F Am Em G F Am Em G once it's done_ there's no re- course_ a whole new

F Am Em G Em G Em G Em G F life will have be- gun_ the bridge a- head_ is

Am F Dm F Dm Em G

far and dark and damp_ with fear_ still_ I walk_

1. F Am Em G F Am Em G F Am Em G

once I had the chance to walk through fi - re once I had the chance and

F Am Em G F Am Em G F Am Em G

let it go des-ti-ny re- turns me to the riv - er des-ti-ny will pass like the wa-ter be- low_

Em G F Dm F Dm F Dm

still

F Dm Em G F Am Em G F Am

I walk_ repeat and fade